The phrase "[a]ll documents and materials of any kind whatsoever," is intended to be interpreted in its broadest sense possible, regardless of the physical form or characteristic, and includes those documents that are maintained in hard-copy form, in electronic form, and on micro-film.

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, these requests shall include any document created, sent, received, prepared, reviewed, revised, or edited from January 1, 2003, through the date of full and complete compliance with the requests contained herein. If any of the requested information is available in whole or in part in electronic form, this letter serves as a request for a duplicate copy of same or a request to review those documents not eligible for duplication. Printouts of any information contained on any disks or diskettes are also requested.

In the event that any or all of the above records do not exist, we request a letter from your office, stating that the requested documentation does not exist.

Please contact the undersigned to arrange a time for a representative of our organization to view the documents identified above. At this time, we ask only that records be made available for review. Upon review, we may request copies of some or all documents. We will not pay for copies of documents not specifically requested upon review.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Drake D. Hill
Chairman
